rk Horse Candidates Will Appear in Montana Senatorial Fight.

HELENA, Mont., Jan. 22.—Chief inter-t in the senatorial situation tonight niers in the Republican caucus to be id tomorrow evenins.

Although the Republicans have three at than the required number to elect, exceptionally strong pressure being ought to bear upon Republican mem-ris known to be opposed to Senator riter, to enter the caucus, leads many suppose that a strong effort will be ade to force the re-election of the pres-t senator.

I senator

Mr. Carter's closest friends in Helena, wever, deny that there is anything in a air, and assert that Senator Carter uild not accept a re-election which nid in any way appear to be tainted. Progress was made by the Republican ders today in their efforts to get the in insurgent Republicans now holding out. Senators Meyer, Everett and McCone de Representative Higgins, while Representative Higgins, while Representative Tolman has asked to have his me taken off the caucus call. The formerrow will doubtless show a lessed vote, owing to the fact that sevipairs made Saturday will be in effort for temorrow's balloting. Tuesday, sever, both the Conrad and the Walsh ders expect to show their full strength, the lines of the Democratic deadlock expected to be drawn tighter than at previous time in the session. With this final test of strength between two leading candidates, it is likely tone or more dark horses will deop during the week.

Secret and Fraternal Societies

Excelsior camp held a rousing meeting Tuesday evening, at which two applications for membership were favorably acted upon. The board of managers reported that an option had been taken on the hall at 161 Main street, and the report was adopted. The consul, the adviser and Neighbor A. Levy were appointed a committee to assist the managers in repairing and furnishing the new quarters. In the week the committee selected a complete outfit of new furniture and let the contract for renewing the hall and nairing and furnishing the new quarters. In the week the committee selected a complete outfit of new furniture and let the contract for renewing the hall and the entrances. The building, when completed, will be a first-class Woodmen's home and will be a monument to the enterprise of Excelsior camp.

The first regular meeting in February will be held in the new hall and on the 14th of the month a house warming, in the way of a basket supper and entertainment, will be a fitting celebration of the opening of a modern Woodmen home. The committee on entertainment is already at work on the details. The degree team, under the command of Chlef Forester Carter, is making rapid progress and places on the team are reaching a premium. A short meeting will be held tomorrow evening, at the close of which the camp will adjourn to the tuberculosis exhibit at 15 East First South street, to participate in Fraternal day. State Lecturer A. D. McGuire will be one of the speakers. The Modern Woodmen sanitarium is given the most prominent display at the exhibit.

Great Salt Lake camp No. 18071 met in joint session with Royal Neighbors camp No. 1388 last Monday evening and installed the officers. Every chair in the hall was filled and a spirit of good feeling prevailed. Following the installation, Neighbor G. M. Sullivan presented Past Consul H. N. How with a solid gold emblem of the society. The members then adjourned to the banquet hall and enjoyed a feast which the Royal Neighbors and the officers of the camp provided. The regular meeting last Tuesday evening also was well attended. Consul N. Nealson appointed Capitain O. G. Weber chief forester for the year. Three new applications were presented and the heneficial degree was conferred upon three candidates. The regular meeting will be held Tuesday evening. All members are urged to attend. three candidates. The regular meeting will be held Tuesday evening. All members are urged to attend.

Utah lodge No. 265 will install officers Wednesday evening, January 25, in K. of C. hall. This installation will be for members of the order only, all of whom are cordially invited to be present. There are cordially invited to be present. There will also be initiation of candidates. There are several things all members of the order should know about, such as the trip to California, the state cup and the greased pole campaign. Plans will be made for the presentation of the "Box several of the members."

Thursday evening. January 26, Sego Lilly lodge No. 252 will hold a public installation of officers, after which there will be dancing. A large crowd is expected. Last meeting night was open house for members and friends. With the games and the dancing, everyone was well entertained. Plans are being made by this lodge to secure the state cup, and many are entering the lists for the trip to California. In the near future there will be a minstre! show, in which there may be expected to be some local hits.

One of the most impressive coremonies in fraternal society in this city was witnessed by an audience of more than 400 Thursday evening, the occasion being the joint public installation of the officers of Banner hive No. 11 and tent No. 2, K. O. T. M. Deputy State Commander Lady Hedge efficiently acted as installing officer for the ladies and State Commander Kelley performed the same duties for the men. The floor work was done in a perfect manner by the guard team of Banner live, under the direction of Lady Capiain Hoffman. At the close of the coremonies a brief but impressive talk was given by Deputy State Commander Hedge, in which she told of the advantage to be derived from a membership in the L. O. T. M., and invited all present to investigate the order, feeling assured that an investigation would result in a desire to be derived therefrom. A short musical pregramme followed, after which those present adjourned to the anteroom, where light refreshments were served by a bey of charming women members of Banner hive. Many compliments were given the efficient manner in which the work was done.
